6:00pm – 7:30pm

Harrisburg Performing Arts Center

On Sunday, March 11th, the South Dakota Symphony Youth Orchestra will be holding a concert at the Harrisburg Performing Arts Center. The performance will feature three orchestras – Philharmonia (a symphonic orchestra for intermediate players); Sinfonia (a string orchestra for developing players) and Prelude Strings (a string orchestra for beginning string players).

The SDSYO is offering music educators, students, and families in the Harrisburg District COMPLIMENTARY TICKETS to attend this performance. To receive the free admission, just say “Harrisburg Symphony” to the ticket sellers when you arrive.
